The identification of housing needs must address issues of affordability, supply, quality, accessibility, size of units, and location. The Housing needs of low and moderate income families are reviewed with regard to those currently utilizing the Public Housing and Section 8 tenant-based rental assistance programs. Affordability is reviewed when determining whether to increase or decrease the family unit size or adjust payment standards. In addition, the Housing Authority of Travis County makes sure that a family pays no more than 30% of their monthly adjusted income towards rent and utilities, thereby allowing families to have a more viable and stable economic and living environment. This information enables families to become more educated, make informed housing decisions and move out of the areas of high poverty concentrations. Data from 2010 demonstrates a need for at least 40,000 additional units of affordable housing in the Austin metropolitan area for low, very low, and extremely low income persons. 2012 survey estimates of the homeless population suggest more than 3,500 persons remain outside of housing. The Housing Authority of Travis County is involved in cooperative efforts to provide housing for the homeless through the establishment of a local homeless person housing preference and an allocation of 40 housing choice vouchers to be used for the homeless person preference. The staff of the Housing Authority of Travis County continuously strives to improve customer service, treat each applicant with respect, and coordinate with other agencies/organizations to better advertise alternative housing assistance programs.

Note: Small, Section 8 only, and High Performing PHAs complete only for Annual Plan submission with the 5-Year Plan. The Housing Authority of Travis County will continue to consult the Consolidated plan in an effort to further address the needs of the low and moderate income populations. The Housing Choice Voucher Program will accomplish this by careful review of payment standards within our jurisdiction. We will maintain or increase Section 8 lease-up rates by continuing to market the program to landlords and endeavor to issue all the Authority’s Housing Choice Voucher baseline number of Vouchers, subject to HUD Annual Contributions Contract funding availability. The Housing Authority will continue to conduct outgoing public relation and outreach with affordable housing advocates, social service agencies and landlords concerning program availability, thereby maintaining program visibility. Currently there are 148 families on the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher and 59 families on the Public Housing Waiting Lists. Both program waiting lists have been closed to new applicants for more than on year. The waiting list for housing choice vouchers, however, remains open to persons meeting the definition of a local preference. A person or family is ranked by date and time application .
